Dear Hildy and Lisa,

I have just picked up the first marvelous issue of BEAUTY & THE BEAST. Everything in it was great! The art, storyline, coloring and the characters were exactly like the movie.

I am proud to say that I am 22 years old and I still love Disney cartoons. Disney has animated the screen for years and I am looking forward to you continuing their magic every month!

A long time fan,
Kevin Johnson
Lowell, MI

We welcome fans of all ages, Kevin! Marvel comics was fortunate to find an amazing creative team whose talents crown the celebrated feature film! And since you're a fan of other Disney cartoons, why not check out our other Marvel/Disney monthlies — THE LITTLE MERMAID, ALADDIN and THE DISNEY AFTERNOON?!

Dear B&B Mail,

I am a big fan of BEAUTY & THE BEAST and THE LITTLE MERMAID. Thank you for the wonderful quality stories of both! I am however, stumped by the trivia question in B&B #6. I checked both my movie and work-in-progress laser discs; the book Belle returns is a plain brown book with no title. She says it's about an ogre and a beanstalk, which would rule out Jack and the Beanstalk. That was about a giant! I would like to let you know that I disagree with your reply about the possibility of a Beauty & The Beast TV series — look what you've done with the comic series!

Once again, thanks for a wonderful comic book! Your writer is doing a super job developing the characters of Belle and Beast!

Mark Ernest, age 38
Eagan, MN

You're welcome! Enchanting writer Barbara Slate will be taking Belle and Beast to many places not yet traveled. According to the dictionary, Mark, ogres and giants can be one and the same! Whatever the definition, you're a giant in our eyes for taking the time to write to us!

Dear Beautiful & Beastly Mail,

This is one of the best comic books I have ever read! Beauty & The Beast is my favorite Disney movie and Belle is my absolute favorite character. In fact, when I saw this on the comic book shelves, I shrieked and grabbed it! (I tend to lose my head a little when I see B&B stuff.) However, after seeing the movie 50,000,000 times, I still have a question: What era does this story take place in?

Keep up the good work! Oh, and the answer to the trivia question in BEAUTY & THE BEAST #6 is Jack and the Beanstalk!

Stephanie Dee, age 12
San Francisco, CA

P.S. How do you order back issues?

Bravo, Stephanie! After seeing the movie 50-umteen times, you're a pro with BEAUTY & THE BEAST trivia! And, Stephanie, we still lose our heads and shriek every time we read this fantastic comic, which is set in 18th century France. Marvel does not keep back issues; try checking with your local comics shop to see if they stock back issues or can order them for you. You may want to consider subscribing to guarantee that you never miss a single future issue of romance and adventure! You'll find a subscription form in this very issue. Simply fill it out, mail it in, and BEAUTY & THE BEAST will be delivered to your doorstep every month! Be sure to check with a parent or adult first. See you next month!

Dear Beautiful & Beastly Mail,

I was very excited when I got BEAUTY & THE BEAST #4 for Christmas! Mom wouldn't let me read it until I was finished opening all of my presents. I owe grandma a big one! I love to draw, so when I got B&B #4, I was very happy! I'd love to get BEAUTY & THE BEAST #5!

Maggie MacFarland, age 7

Grandmas always give the best gifts,

TRIVIA QUESTION:

While touring the castle with Belle, Cogsworth points out the unusual inverted vaulted ceilings, the flying buttresses, and the pseudo-facade with Rococo design (yet another example of the late neo-classical baroque period), and shares one of his favorite sayings with her.

What is it?

Write to us if you know the answer!

don't they, Maggie!? It's exciting to know that there are aspiring young artists using BEAUTY & THE BEAST for inspiration. You probably got B&B #5 by now, but just remember there's a new BEAUTY & THE BEAST comic every month at your local newsstand and comics shop, or you can subscribe like Stephanie in the letter above. We hope you enjoy all the issues of B&B no matter where you buy them!

Dear Hildy,

My favorite Disney movies are Beauty & The Beast and The Three Musketeers! I have been collecting Beauty & The Beast stuff from the beginning, including the BEAUTY & THE BEAST comic books! I have had great enjoyment from reading B&B and looking at the art. I can't wait for the next issue! However, I wish there was a THE THREE MUSKETEERS comic book. I know I would buy it if the art was as fantastic as BEAUTY & THE BEAST! Congratulations on a job well done! Walt would be proud!

Katie Sowers, age 18 (on 12/29/94 anyway)
Troy, OH

Your wish has come true, Katie! Marvel's THE THREE MUSKETEERS limit-

The answer to B&B #6 trivia question is Jack and the Beanstalk.

Bravo to Nicole Thordson, 8 1/2, Huntington Beach, CA, Tabitha Shoopman, 13, Milford IN, and the writers above who answered correctly!

ed series adaptation of the Disney film came out last year and should be available at your local comics shop! Walt's love for fun, fantasy, romance and adventure continues in the pages of BEAUTY & THE BEAST and we couldn't be prouder! Hope your birthday was happy!

Dear, yet Beastly, Comic,

Bonjour, my name is Elizabeth A. Nelson and I am writing to you out of necessity. As unkind and well, beastly, as what I say may sound, please hear what I have to say. I recently received BEAUTY & THE BEAST #4 and because of what I saw I felt compelled to write to you. When I initially heard that a B&B comic book was going to be created, I, as well as many others I am sure, was very grateful and pleasantly expectant of the arrival of the first issue with high hopes. And for the most part they were well met. Overall, the illustration and coloring of both characters and scenery have met the expectations of the normal reading group, no doubt. But please, consider the techniques used on the X-MEN and others!

Initially I wondered how the writer would handle the plot direction of BEAUTY & THE BEAST. It pleased me immensely to see that it was with Beast and Belle still in the castle. But I am beginning to see an alarmingly stale pattern forming. Beast acts beastly, Belle gets mad, admitting to herself that he really is a beast, then eventually forgives him — the "he's sweet and so unsure, I don't know why I didn't see it there before" routine. Where, if this were my relationship, I would have realized that it just wasn't going to work and we would have gone our separate ways! Isn't Belle ever to blame? I mean, she's not perfect.

But really, despite all the comments, I applaud the creators of BEAUTY & THE BEAST for their efforts given to this most worthy project. I hope you know all the hours of enjoyment you are creating for the people who love the characters in this romantic fantasy. Thank you for your time and patience. They are both equally appreciated! Your cover to B&B #4 was the best yet!

Sincerely, your most critical yet devoted fan,
Elizabeth A. Nelson
Mankato, MN

We hope you've discovered and enjoyed all the new directions Belle and Beast have taken since BEAUTY & THE BEAST #4, Elizabeth! While we love the look of X-MEN comics, we've inherited a very distinct look in the B&B comic from the kings of animation that works beautifully in this genre! Thanks for your comments and critique, Elizabeth, we know that you truly love B&B! And doesn't love have a funny way of bringing out the beast in all of us?!

Dear Beautiful & Beastly Mail,

I'm very impressed with the BEAUTY & THE BEAST comic book series, more so than any other. Nothing disagrees with the movie, but simply enhances it and when I combine the two in my mind the overall story doesn't change! I'm glad there is a comic book series rather than a TV series. It seems that often the storylines change from the movie and it ruins it. I am glad that BEAUTY & THE BEAST has not been changed like that. I await each new issue with anticipation, but I know it must end sometime, or the story will lose its charm and appeal. So I've been wondering, how long is the series going to last? In the meantime, don't change a thing!

Brandi Hartmann, age 16
Pearland, TX

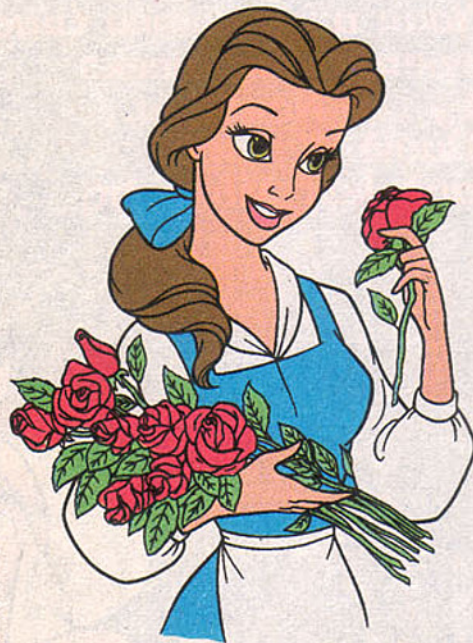

We wouldn't dream of disappointing our devoted followers, Brandi! BEAUTY & THE BEAST will be with us until the last petal of the enchanted rose falls and the spell has been broken! As long as there is Beast and Belle, how could the tale as old as time lose its charm and appeal? The intrigue of the issues to come are guaranteed to keep you reading! See you in 30, Brandi!

Next Month:

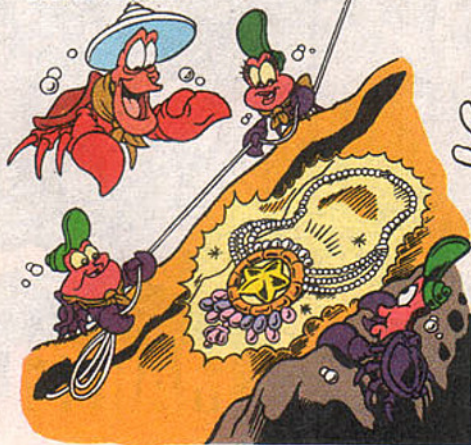

"Dove Tales, A Masterpiece for the Master"—After her brush with death in the terrible blizzard, Belle agrees to sit for a portrait to cheer up Beast. Join us for the romantic adventure as Paintbrush captures Belle's most intimate feelings on canvas!

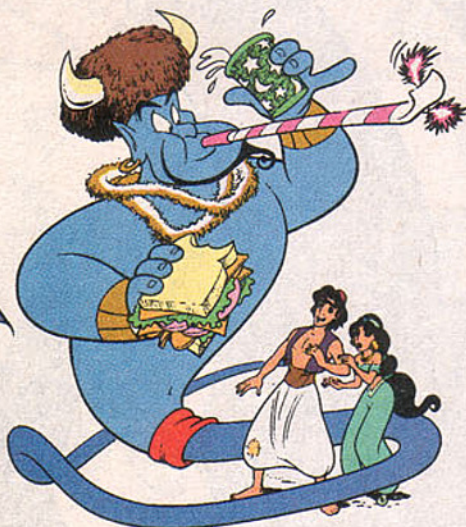

Also This Month...

"Gone With The Waves"—Upon returning from a royal trip, King Triton presents Ariel with a necklace that she hates! When she accidentally loses it, all of Atlantica leaves no clam unturned searching for it! Will Ariel's missing "treasure" ever be found?!

"Bad Medicine"—Will Darkwing Duck be able to stifle the flu long enough to save the citizens of St. Canards from all the bank heists? Join Goof Troop's Max and PJ as they make a surprising discovery in their own backyard!

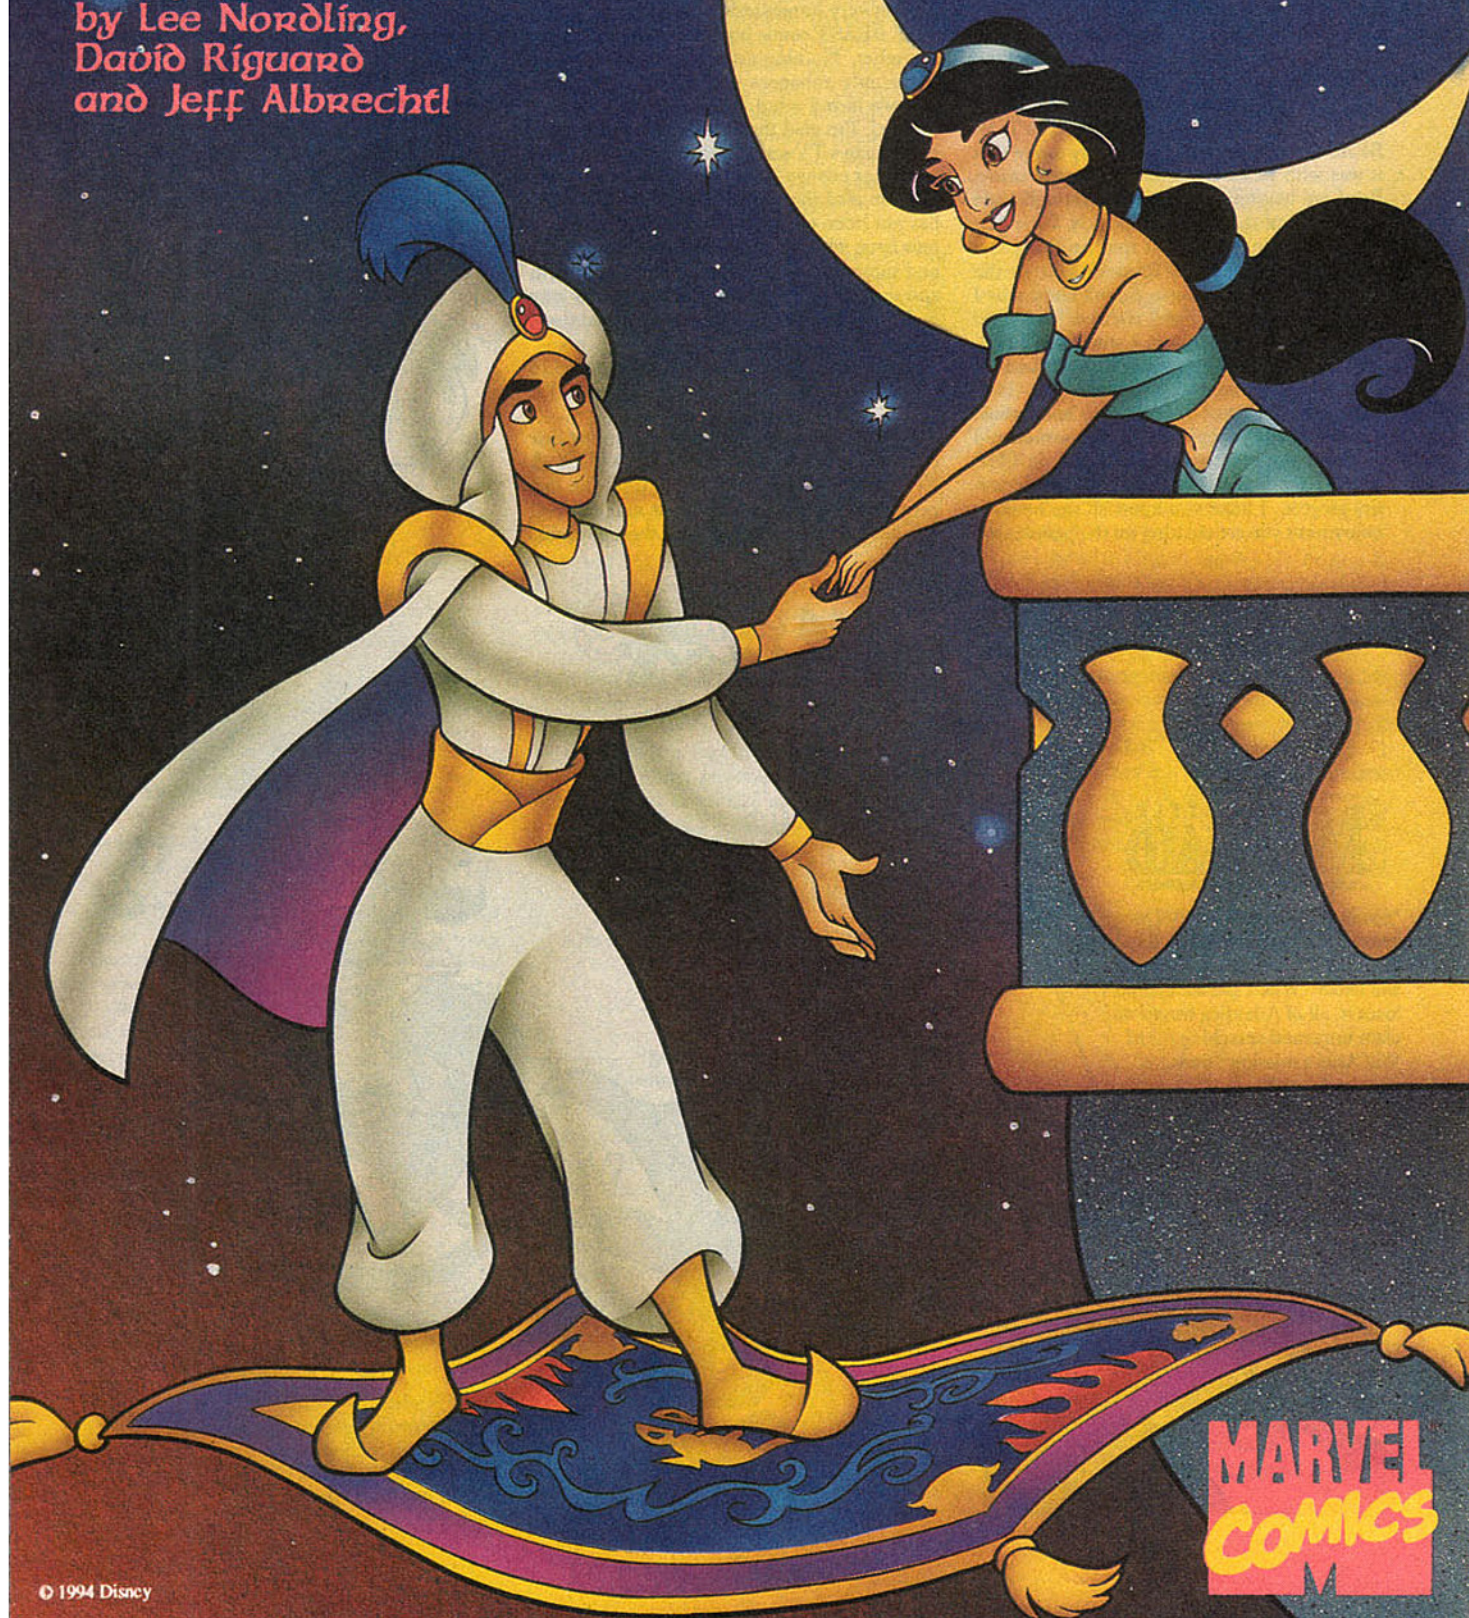

"Genie Jamboree"—Better watch out, conventioning genies are coming to town! After Agrabah is chosen as the host city, Genie hits critical mass. Can Genie save Agrabah from mass destruction?!
